9. Denies the allegations set forth in paragraph “III(E),” of the Complaint, except admits that plaintiff applied for a position in the title of Special Officer with DHS, that as part of the standard application process for appointment to Special Officer plaintiff was given a psychological screening, and that plaintiff did not pass the psychological screening and was not hired at DHS.

10. Denies the allegations set forth in paragraph “IV(A),” of the Complaint, except denies knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations concerning the filing of a charge of discrimination with the United States Equal Employment Opportunity Commission (“EEOC”) and respectfully refer the Court to what appears to be a right to sue letter, dated June 10, 2016, charge of discrimination case number 520-2016-02537.
